

AngelList User Group and Reception

Colabria announces the AngelList User Group and Reception on Tuesday March 12 2013 in San Francisco, California USA

San Francisco, California (PRWEB) February 27, 2013 -- The AngelList User Group <http://goo.gl/j4hDU> is an after-work reception and Meetup on Tuesday, March 12th 2013 in San Francisco, California USA. It is for entrepreneurs, investors, talent and all users of AngelList. AngelList is popular website and platform for raising money for startups. All are welcome.

The venue is Runway, 1355 Market Street, Suite 488, in San Francisco. Runway is a new startup tech incubator located in the Twitter Building. The AngelList User Group begins at 5:30 p.m. with a reception.

The format is speakers, panel discussions, open conversation, Q&A and networking. Refreshments are included. Event dress is business casual.

The AngelList User Group was formed to accomplish all the goals of traditional users groups. In addition, and unique to entrepreneurial finance, the group fulfills the need for developing the personal relationships and productive interactions that propel startups, capital formation and talent discovery.

The AngelList User Group is sponsored by participants. A modest administrative fee covers expenses. It is organized by Colabria. The AngelList User Group Event is staffed by volunteers. Registration in advance is required.

AngelList User Group benefits include:

- Helping you get the most from AngelList
- Hearing firsthand accounts and success stories from users
- Extending your AngelList profile with proximate interactions
- Nurturing productive interactions and prosperous relationships
- Understanding of crowd funding, the JOBS Act and online intermediaries

You are invited to RSVP to the AngelList User Group and create the future of entrepreneurial finance.
